How to send your photograph for clinical review:

Thank-you for consenting to send your images for review.

You will be sent a link and a one-time password via an email from unitysexualhealth.photos@uhbw.nhs.uk.

You must not send images directly to the email address.

Open the link and type in the password.

Please attach the relevant images to the folder.

The clinician can now view the image.

The process of sending of images by the link uses a secure system.

The images will only be utilised to aid your care.

The image will be either be deleted or stored securely on your clinical record.

The image will not be shared elsewhere without your permission.
